Pursuant to OAW-51a, I informed Foreign Minister TAKI on November 10 that the provisions of the Mutual Defense Assistance Control Article had not been extended to Cuba. After going over the subject orally, I left Taki in informal chat and gave him a copy of Section 107 of the Foreign Aid Act and pertinent extracts from the Department's unclassified interpretation thereof, as transmitted in OAW-51.

At the same time, I informed Lyle with regard to his attitude of November 1 for the UN Committee's comments on possible handling of the problem of Palestine refugees. When a working session took place on November 1, that we believe the UN Committee should understand that the UN Committee, which it feels are practical and have no further suggestions or proposals at the present time (April 1951). I noted that, as Lyle's meeting on November 1, the Committee of new this regarding these refugees under the UN. As I had earlier, however, I stressed that the Committee of UN would not consider international right this is the most important matter than any consideration re U.N. UN.
